Dear Friends

Welcome to our exciting November 2024 edition. November has two very popular and important events that we highlight; the African Sourcing and Fashion Week (ASFW), which this year, with its 10-year milestone, promises to be one of a kind, full of surprises, and bursting with opportunities for business growth, creative collaboration, and global partnerships; and the annual Diplomatic Charity Bazaar which is also held in November, uniting local and international communities to raise funds for charitable activities in Ethiopia.

A looted ancient Ethiopian shield is being repatriated thanks to Prince Ermias and the Royal Ethiopian Trust (RET) a non-profit organization that preserves and promotes Ethiopian culture and education.

Our book review highlights the perils of human trafficking as author Elsabet Ademe documents her compelling journey to the West in her book Behind Sunrise.

Have a good month and see you in December.

HISTORICAL AND ANCIENT SHIELD RETURNED TO ETHIOPIA

looted ancient Ethiopian shield is finally returning home after being purchased by His Imperial Highness Prince Ermias, a grandson of Emperor Haile-Selassie I. He successfully negotiated the repatriation of the 19th-century ornamented shield stolen by British troops following the Battle of Magdala. The shield then disappeared into a private collection and was due to be put up for sale by a UK auction house.

Prince Ermias established the Royal Ethiopian Trust (RET) – a non-profit organization – to preserve and promote the cultural, educational, and economic well-being of all Ethiopian people. “This shield is not just a historical artifact; it is a symbol of Ethiopia’s history and resilience,” said Prince Ermias.

The shield, one of numerous artifacts seized by British troops following the battle of Magdala in 1868, holds immense cultural value. To secure the return of the shield, the RET collaborated with Alula Pankhurst, renowned British scholar with expertise in Ethiopian history.

“It has been an honor to work with Prince Ermias and the Royal Ethiopian Trust to return this significant piece of history to its people,” Alula stated. “Our families have long been dedicated to safeguarding Ethiopia’s heritage, and ensuring that this shield returns to the Ethiopian people is a proud continuation of that legacy.”

Before it comes home, the shield will travel to Ohio, where it will be on display at the Toledo Museum of Art, from October 4th to 27th, concurrently with the “Ethiopia at a Crossroads” exhibit.

The Magdala Shield will make its final journey home in November and will be housed in the National Museum of Ethiopia, where it will be on display for the Ethiopian people and visitors from around the world.

ETHIOPIAN FAMILY BUSINESS FORUM: INAUGURAL CONFERENCE

NOVEMBER 2024

PASSING THE TORCH: SUSTAINING SUCCESS IN ETHIOPIAN FAMILY BUSINESSES

The Ethiopian Family Business Forum's inaugural conference, organized by HST Consulting in partnership with the Addis Ababa Chamber of Commerce and Sectoral Associations, took place in September 2024.

This event brought together leaders from prominent family-owned businesses across Ethiopia to address the unique challenges and opportunities these enterprises face in the country's evolving economic landscape.

Family-owned businesses are a critical pillar of Ethiopia's economy, contributing significantly to job creation and economic development. However, they often face critical challenges related to governance, succession planning, and maintaining family unity across generations.

This conference provided insights and strategies through keynote presentations, expert panels, and breakout sessions, offering practical tools and best practices for long-term success.

Centered around the theme "Passing the Torch: Sustaining Success in Ethiopian Family Businesses," the event explored how family businesses can successfully transition leadership, maintain family unity, and thrive for future generations.

The Conference featured keynote addresses offering perspectives on succession planning in family businesses and governance. Sessions covered topics such as governance, family council, finance and wealth management, family employment, and talent development, equipping business leaders with actionable strategies for succession and sustainability.

A highlight was the release of the Ethiopian Family Business Survey, conducted with 48 Ethiopian family businesses. This survey provided key insights into succession, talent management, strategy, and governance—areas vital to the long-term success of family businesses.

A major milestone of the Conference was the introduction of the Ethiopian Family Business Forum Advisory Council, composed of prominent family business leaders.

The Ethiopian Family Business Forum is dedicated to fostering a supportive community where family businesses can connect, share knowledge, and ensure their success for generations to come.

GUMMA® FILM AWARD

ETHIOPIAN FILM AWARD

www.gummaaward.com

The Gumma Film Awards is an Ethiopian domestic film award that has been held in Addis Ababa annually since 2014. It was founded by film director Yonas Berhene Mewa to establish a platform for Ethiopian film industry professionals to work together to create a film industry that promotes Ethiopian culture, values and Ethiopian stories. In addition, the vision of the Gumma Awards is to bring the Ethiopian film industry up to a world-standard cinema industry.

Over the last ten years, the Gumma Film Awards have become a premium event to reward acclaimed domestic Ethiopian films, presenting outstanding individuals and collective efforts in the industry over 29 categories, as determined by industry professionals.

As an enchanting, glamorous and exciting event for the entertainment industry, the annual Gumma Film Awards are broadcast by several television stations every year for the millions of eager Ethiopian movie lovers to tune in and watch the award ceremony.

The word GUMMA is an Oromiffa word that has an equivalent meaning to the English word 'compensation', with the idea of acknowledgment for the best skill and effort in the Ethiopian film industry.

To mark the Tenth Anniversary of the GUMMA Awards this year, serious movies and documentaries were part of the competition. Dr. Birhanu Shibru also said a few words about the Lifetime, Hermela and Humanitarian Awards as part of the program that was held at the Sheraton Addis on Friday, 18 October 2024.

BISRAT SHIBABAW: CONSUMMATE ARTIST

Solo Exhibition: 1 – 3 November 2024
@ Moa Anbessa Art Studio Gallery,
Kazanchis

Recognized at home and abroad as a premiere painter, Bisrat has secured numerous solo and group exhibitions in Ethiopia, China, France and the prestigious University of Florida Harn Museum of Arts, with work also in the USA Art in Embassies Collection and with many leading Ethiopian art collectors.

Bisrat is soft-spoken and called a 'consummate artist' for her work ethos. Born in Addis Ababa in 1965, she is a 1983 graduate of the Addis Ababa University Ale School of Fine Arts and Design (AAUASFAD) with a Master's Degree from St. Petersburg Academy of Arts, Russia, 1992.

Currently an instructor at her Alma Mater (AAUASFAD), Bisrat is impacting generations of visual artists. Simultaneously she is creating intriguing visually verbose paintings and collages in her flora-filled studio, nestled in an Addis alcove.

Renowned artist, Tesfaye Urgessa, who represented Ethiopia at the Venice Biennial, recalled in an interview with ArtReview, "Bisrat Shibabaw...laid the foundation for my painting skills and instilled in me the discipline to pursue them. They (Bisrat and Mezgebu Tesema) were my major influences ... serving as my first gateway into the world of painting..."

King of Charcoal, Prince Merid Tafesse states, "Bisrat is one of the most profound Ethiopian artists of our time, uninhibited, curious and confident in her application of various media and subject matters. My wife, Dr. Desta and I are proud to present her work at Moa Anbessa A.S.G."

Bisrat's self-titled solo exhibition is on view from Friday, November 1 - Sunday, November 3 in the "SALON SERIES 2017/2024" hosted at Moa Anbessa Art Studio Gallery (A.S.G.) in Kazanchis.

BEHIND SUNRISE

by Elsabet Ademe

Based on factual events of the dangerous journey of human trafficking.

Behind Sunrise tells the story of the bright, positive and ferociously determined, Sarah Belay, a sixteen-year-old Ethiopian girl with big dreams. She wants to travel to Europe to pursue the arts. However, her family is dead set against it.

She hears the man who drives her to school talk about human smuggling, and a few weeks later, she leaves her home to embark on a journey that dramatically changes her life.

NOVEMBER 2024

BASED ON A TRUE STORY

BEHIND SUNRISE

31 ELSABET ADEME

With little information from her transporters, Sarah travels the perilous off-road paths toward Sudan in the care of suspicious and increasingly cruel men. The battle for survival brings out the worst in some, and the incredibly good in others as a bond forms between some of the travelers.

Arriving in Sudan, Sarah finds work and saves money for what she believes is the most dangerous leg of the journey - the long trek through the Sahara Desert and into Libya. The passage, however, is a nightmare far worse than anything she could have imagined.

Abandoned by the smugglers in a vast barrenness, the friends hire a local Libyan smuggler to get them to Tripoli. Instead, he takes them to the middle of the desert and into even more life-threatening dangers.

About the Author

Elsabet Ademe was born in Bahir Dar. As a teenager, she embarked on the most dangerous journey of her life - traveling the treacherous smugglers' route toward the West. Travelling as an illegal immigrant, she lived and worked in several countries to save money towards making it to the United States. Persistence made that dream come true. She became a U.S. citizen and established a career in acting, writing, producing and casting.

THE DIPLOMATIC CHARITY BAZAAR: A CELEBRATION OF GIVING AND CULTURE

NOVEMBER 16, 2024 @UNECA
10:00 AM - 4:00 PM

The Diplomatic Charity Bazaar is an annual event that unites local and international communities in their efforts to raise funds for charitable activities in Ethiopia and it attracts thousands of visitors. Organized by the Diplomatic Spouses Group Ethiopia (DSGE) in cooperation with Prologue, the Bazaar showcases diverse cultures while promoting solidarity with Ethiopia's vulnerable populations.

The Bazaar is a fun day for the whole family in a safe and secluded space. Whether you are Ethiopian, Expat or just on a visit, and whether you want to enjoy some traditional food and drinks from all over the world, do your Christmas shopping, get inspired by upcoming Ethiopian business initiatives, or just meet with friends, enjoy live performances, and have your kids have a blast, it's the right place for you.

The event features large tents with embassies selling traditional handicrafts, artwork, clothing, food, drinks, and more, and NGOs promoting their organizations and selling their products.

There is a large food and drink court equipped by some of the Bazaar's sponsors with plenty of space to sit down and enjoy the entertainment, and to chat with friends, and embassies selling food and drinks from all over the world. Performances such as traditional dances and live music further enrich the atmosphere.

Mulu Village – Sustainably and Socially Yours promotes local, sustainable products and social enterprises. And children get to have fun in the Kids Area with plenty of entertainment.

All proceeds from the Bazaar support local organizations in health, education, and poverty alleviation, as well as empowering women, children and differently abled.

Months of preparations go into organizing the Bazaar with diplomatic missions, NGOs, sponsors and volunteers all working together. As one of Ethiopia's most anticipated charitable events, the Diplomatic Charity Bazaar is a powerful symbol of global cooperation and generosity, making a lasting impact on those in need.
